GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

FITZ HERBERT IS NOW A STAG TWO-YEAR-OLD COLT.

A. J. Joyner, Who Sold Him for $8,000. Tries to Buy Him Back From H. R. Brandt for $7,500-Jack Atkin and Roseben in Rare Form Once More.

A. J. Joyner is sorry now that he sold the two-year-old Fthelbert colt Fitz Herbert to . Brandt some time ago for $3,000. Joyner, who is training the Whitney horses, saw Fits Herbert work a half mile in 47 seconds on Wednesday and promptly offered Brandt $7,500 cash for the colt. But Brandt, who knows a good horse when he sees one, turned a deaf ear. Fitz Herbert has run nine races his spring, winning five and losing four. He has been twice beaten by Trance, the best two-year-old filly shown so far, and has also been trimmed by High Private and Hoyle. It was in his first start that Fitz Herbert was beaten by Hoyle, but since he became the property of Brandt he has developed wonderfully. In fact there are few colts of his age that can take him into camp.

Brandt was dead sure that Fitz Herbert would win the last race yesterday and told everybody to bet on him. The big operators accordingly got busy and pounded him down from 9 to 10 to 3 to 5. The son of Ethelbert was giving ten pounds to Uncle Jim and Afteen to Voodoo, for which reason both of these colts got a play. The fact that Uncle Jim in his previous race was beaten half a length by John E. Madden's Sir Martin, who later won the National Stallion Stakes at Belmont Park from such voungsters at Selectman, Joe Madden, Bobbin and Sandpiper, was used as an argument yesterday that Fitz Herbert is close to the top notch.

Brandt scored a prior success when Jack Atkin won the Parkway Handicap. The clever trainer had the great Sain colt in magnificent trim for this event, and as he made no secret of it Jack Atkin was backed from 18 to 5 to 8 to 5. This caused Master Robert to 20 back from 8 to 5 to 2, while Tourenne receded to 13 to 5. It will be recalled that in the Cosmopolitan Handicap at Belmont Park Tourenne with 100 pounds beat Jack Atkin with 129 in a gallop. Tourenne had ten pounds more this time, while the Sain colt had five pounds less.

Whether it was the difference in the weight or a change in the horse's condition nobody ld say, but the fact remains that Tourenne ran a dull looking race, which caused some adverse comment. Jack Atkin gave eleven pounds by the scale to Master Robert and Montgomery and fourteen to Spooner. Jack previous winners being Favor (twice). Now quet, Dr. Rice, Sir Walter, St. Maxim, Howard Mann, Mirthful, Don de Oro, Imp, Sidney Lucas, Contend, Major Daingerfield (twice Buttling and Blandy (twice).

Roseben never showed better form than in the first race. He shouldered 135 pounds as if it was a feather. He broke away from the post with a world of speed, and had it not been for the high wind, Trainer Frank Weirsaid, he probably would have broken the record for the track. As it was he ran the short six furlongs in 1:09 1-5, four-fifths of a second slower than the best figures. There was some even money quoted against the Big Train at the outset, but the backing was so overwhelming that he closed at 13 to 20 loseben conceded twenty-four pounds by the scale to Pantouffe, who ran second, and twenty to Gold Lady, who ran third. H. F Whitney's Timber, a five-year-old son of Ogden-Lola A., who was a star two-year-old, out broke down the following season, made his first appearance after a long absence in this event, and was played too, though he went up from 2 to 3. He had a flash of early speed, but quit badly in the stretch.

The books reaped a harvest on the resul second race. Rara Avis was the hottest kind of a favorite, backed from 7 to 5 to evens, but his chances were killed by the start. Arasee who was well backed for the place, was just beaten for that position by Black Oak, a 12 to 1 shot, taken three ways. Corncob, the winner, went up from 12 to 20. bet $100 on Corncob against $2,000 just before the barrier went up. Nick Stoner burned up a lot of one, two, three wagers.

was a matter of opinion as to whethe Field Mouse or Suffragette would win the Criterion Stakes. Both opened at 8 to 5, bu the weight of Field Mouse's support told gette went back to 2. Field Mouse, by the way, gave five pounds to the Keene filly in ddition to beating her with ease. Hammer less, a chestnut filly by Hamburg-Trigger, owned by Fred Johnson, was a starter in this race and was well backed at 8. John E. Madden, who looked her over in the paddock, recalled the fact that he sold Hamburg to the late W. C. Whitney for $40,000, while he disposed of Trigger to C. H. Mackay for $10,000. T. H. Williams's colors were carried by Rosevale, by Eddie Jones-Sweet Rose, who because of some good races in Cali-fornia was played for 20 to 15. Field Mouse took down $6,375 as her share of the stakes Previous winners were Virginia Earle, Cap and Belle, Grail, Mamari, Hamburg Belle, Schu lamite, Flip Flap, Court Dress and Lady Winifred. There was some ugiv talk as to the condition of Good Luck, who started in the fifth race. On form he looked to hold the others safe and the public backed him from 5 to 2 to 0 to 5. When he came out of the paddock, however, it was noticed that he was sore and when he failed to show any speed in the race and pulled up lame there were growls on all sides. Lucky Jack McGinnis probably got back some of his losses during the early part of the season when Troublesome won this race in his colors. Troublesome was maiden when he went to the barrier and nobody but McGinnis thought he bid a chance on earth. McGinnis, however, played him three ways at 40, 15 and 6, and was wreathed in smiles when the colt landed the dough. Incidentally Troublesome appeared to be well named, for he spoiled a killing with Fred Cook's Missouri Lad, who was backed from 10 down to 5. As Lord Stanhope was well backed straight and place, also Tommy Waddell, cut from 10 to 8, the ring enjoyed a great cleanup. Beauclere ran as if in need of a race and will be a bet in the near future.

The Newcastle Stable, one of the leading will be sold out a week from to-day. The prin cipal owners are Andrew Miller, a steward of the Jockey Club; Blair Painter and Thomas Welsh. Among the horses that will be put under the hammer are the four-year-old McCarter, who won a selling race the other day; the three-year-olds Big Chief, Carrollton, Explosion and Cosmopolitan, and the two-year-olds Ceremonious, Counterpane, Home Run, Lily Pad, Preceptor, Royal Capture and The Pippin. The dissolution of the partnership has been rumored for some time past and means that Jockey Musgrave will be released. The Newcastle Stable has not been very successful this year and it is said that Andrew Miller intends to retire from active racing. F. C. Bishop sold out his interests in the stable last year. There is much faultfinding just now because of the poor work of Acting Starter Pettingill and racegoers are anxious to have Mars Cassidy return. Cassidy's wife died recently and Pettingill has been handling the barrier in his absence with poor success. Favorites and second choices have in many cases been practically left at the post, so that bettors have come timid about placing their wagers. That the Jockey Club should employ two regular starters is more apparent than ever before. This plan has been advocated by many horsemen for some time past but no official action has even been contemplated, it seems. It is asking too much of a man who starts at the winter tracks to handle the barrier every day on the Jockey Club circuit without a letup. Cassidy's work with the barrier this spring has been good and very little fault has been found with it. It becomes more apparent from day to day that Waiter Miller has lost much of his old form. He had four mounts yesterday but falled to get one of them into the money. E. Dugan and Notter appear to outclass him to a marked degree.

CROKER'S RHODORA FALLS. Then the Derby Winner, Signorinette Easily Takes the Oaks.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, June 5 .- Signorinetta, the Italian flly, which took the Dirby, won the Oaks Stakes, 5,000 sovereigns, for three-year-old fillies, about one mile and a half, at Epsom today. Richard Croker's Rhodora did not get s place, colliding with Major Eustace Loder's French Partridge. Both fell. Rhodora's jockey, Lucien Lyne, was not seriously injured and was removed in a motor car, but Leader, French Partridge's rider, was rendered unconscious.

Signorinetta, owned by Ginistrelli, took the event by three-quarters of a length Lord Falmouth's Courtesy was second, and G. Edwards's Santeve was third. The betting was 3 to 1 against Signorinetta and 100 to 7 against Courtesy, with the same odds against Santeve. In the draw for place to-day Signorinetta again drew 13, the same as on Wednesday for

The start was a good one. Elm Twig made the running, followed by French Partridge and Rhodora, Duegna, Siberia and Santeve. Thus they went for half a mile. Then Rhodora and French Partridge collided and fell. Sig norinetta then took second place, taking the lead when rounding Tattenham Corner, followed by Elm Twig. Santeve and Courtesv. The last named spurted, but Signorinetta easily maintained her lead to the finish. W. B. Purefoy's Bracelet was fourth. The betting against Rhodora was 6 to 4.

against Rhodora was 6 to 4.

Signorinetta has been the third filly in the history of the Derby and Oaks to annex the dual bracket. The first was Sir C. Bunbury's Eleanor in 1801, and Blink Bonny won the double for W. I'Anson in 1857. Had Croker's Rhodora not come to grief the result would show whether or not Signorinetta is an out and out wonder. Rhodora won the One Thousand Guineas in decisive style, and it was the opinion of a majority of the critice that she was the best three-year-old in training. Still a few of the keener brigade hung on to the theory that there is a big difference in galloping over the Rowley mile and tackling the mile and a half at Epsom, with its up grade, dip and sharp swing at Tattenham Corner.

According to the cabled despatches Signorinetta's time for the Oaks was 2 minutes 42 2-5 seconds, and this is a fraction slower than the figures hung up by Glass Doll, last year's winner. The best record for the "Ladies Race" is 2 minutes 38 seconds, by Col. Hall Waiker's Cherry Lass in 1905. This, however, is not the best piece of galloping over the Epsom course and over the same distance. In the Coronation cup of 1905 Pretty Polly won cantering in the smashing time of 2 minutes 33 seconds, a mark that will likely remain untouched for a long time. The time recorded for Signorinetta in the Derby was 2 minutes 30 4-5 seconds and this is three seconds behind the best record, made by Spearmint in 1906.

Report has it that Signorinetta will be sent across for the Grand Prix, to be run at Paris on June 14, and if successful she will have achieved something never done so far. The best to date is Gladiateur, a French colt, who won the Grand Prix and Derby in 1853, and Spearmint, a British colt, who repeated the reformance in 1906. The two victories put Signor Ginistrelli at the top of the winning owners' list in England, replacing August Belmont.

LADEW SHOWS A RINGER. But He Takes No Pains to Conceal It From Plainfield Committee.

The discovery that Harvey S. Ladew had exhibited a ringer in the combination saddle and harness class on Thursday at the Plainfield horse show was a surprise to every one at the show yesterday. Mr. Ladew said that his mare had received the sanction of Lewis Waring, one of the Plainfield Club committee. He asserts that Belle McDonald. the mare entered in the combination class, was sick and that before showing another mare in her place he had consulted with Mr. Waring as to the advisability of his move Mr. Waring evidently did not object.

Mr. Waring evidently did not object.

The mare that was shown resembled the original entry. He purchased her from Tichenor Grand at an auction sale on Tuesday last and as she was a much handsomer mare than Belle McDotald she would have stood a very good chance of winning the blue ribbon if her identity had not been discovered in the show ring. She immediately got the gate and Mr. Ladew vastaken to task, though the only thing that could be charged against him was ignorance of the rules and regulations.

him was ignorance of the rules and regulations.

In Class 23 Reginald C. Vanderbilt's chest-nut gelding Dr. Selwonk carried home "the opicial Hors. Show Blue Book" challenge cup. He won a leg on the cup last year and his victory vesterday over Paul A. Sorg's chestnut gelding Red Oak decided the ownership of the rich trophy. Mr. Vanderbilt put the cup on the seat beside him and drove round the ring while every one applauded.

WINDUP OF DOG SHOW. Judging in Special Classes the Feature at Mineoia.

Dogs that had figured in the regular classes were in competition again for the unclassified

were in competition again for the unclassified specials and variety classes to close the annual open air show of the Ladies' Kennel Association yesterday at Mineola. There was a throng in attendance and Miss Anna Sands, the new president, was the recipient of many congratulations on the success of the first show under her leadership.

There was a keen competition for the Ballyhoo Bey challenge cup for the best American bred, the award going to the Red Brook Kennels' poodle Red Brook Model. Mrs. R. F. Mayhew won the champion cup for the best dog owned by a member with her pretty Pomeranian Champion Shelton Brown Elf, and the Pawling challenge cup for the best toy of any breed was captured amid the plaudits of the onlookers by Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr. s. Pekinese spaniel Pou-Sa. In the variety class for sporting dogs and bitches, any breed except terriers, the blue in the first division C. Houlker handed to Dinah, an English foxbound owned by the Middlesex (Mass.) Hunt, and the same prize in the second division to the Clumber spaniel Queenie Fielding of Ormond, owned by G. R. Preston of Tuxedo Park. In the non-sporting variety class the highest honors went to Orchard Snowstorm, a white poodle from the Red Brook Kennels of Miss Alger and Miss Grace. The variety class for terriers was a notable victory for Joseph McAleenan's Irishman Newry Shamus, while in the same class for pets and toys Miss Susan Gerkhardt of Brooklyn won with the Japanese spaniel Fiko. specials and variety classes to close the an-

Fiko.

The Middlesex Hunt won the prize for the best stud dog with Champion Vanguard. In the brood bitch class and champion bitch class the smooth fox terrier Warren Remedy scored a double victory for Winthrop Rutherfurd.

PELL DEFEATS PALMER And Qualifies for Challenge Round

Felipe Cup Singles. Theodore R. Pell of the New York L. T. C yesterday won the final round of the tournament for the Felipe cup on the courts of the home club. He defeated Richard H. Palmer of the Ridgewood T. C. in straight sets. The victory entitles Pell to meet Harold H. Hackett this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the challenge round for the trophy.

A semi-final match for the Manhattan bowls in doubles was played vesterday afternoon. Hackett and Alexander, the national champions, met G. F. Touchard and Dr. William Rosenbaum. As one of the onlookers expressed it, the match merely helped Touchard and Rosenabum to see how doubles should be played. Hackett and Alexander won in straight sets. On Monday they will meet T. R. Pell and C. F. Watson, Jr., in the final round.

JACK ATKIN'S TRACK RECORD

WITH TOP WEIGHT-HE WINS THE PARKWAY HANDICAP.

Roseben Runs in Old Time Form-Field Mouse Takes Criterion-Corneob and Troublesome Score at Long Odds-Fitz Herbert Gallops Home at Gravesend.

Jack Atkin, carrying 124 pounds and a favorite at 8 to 5, ran a great race in the Park-way Handicap, one mile and a sixteenth, at Gravesend yesterday. With J. Lee up he made all of his own pace and won easily by two lengths in 1:45 3-5, a new track record. Master Robert, 2 to 1, who was as good as left at the barrier, made up many lengths and finished in the place two lengths before James R. Keene's Gretna Green, a 15 to shot. Tourenne, 13 to 5, could not raise a gallop, while Spooner, 40 to 1, after chasing Atkin for three-quarters of a mile, blew up. Montgomery showed that he was still far below his best form. The previous track record was 1:45 3-5, made by three-year-old, with 120 pounds in 1906. Roseben was in superb form in the opening vent, a handicap for all ages, at about six furlongs. The Big Train shouldered 135 pounds and was a 13 to 20 favorite. Notter took him away from the post at top speed and he was never really extended after that. He won on the bit by four lengths in 1:00 1-5. Pantouffe, backed down to 5, had a oinch on the blace with Gold Lady, 40 to 1, third. H. P. Whitney's Timber, 3 to 1, ran as if in need of several races.

Corncob, a 20 to 1 shot, made all the running in the second race, for three-year-olds, at a mile and a sixteenth, and won in a drive three parts of a length from Black Oak, 12 to 1, who was or poorly, but closed strong and had the same kind of a margin over and had the same kind of a margin over Arasee, 5 to 1, who was second most of the way but tired. A ragged start killed the chances of Rara Avis, even mosey favorite, and Nick Stoner, 7 to 1. The time was 148. August Belmont's Field Mouse, 3 to 2 favorite, showed the way from the start in the Criterion Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, five furlongs, and breezed home a length and a half before James R. Keene's Suffragette, 2 to 1. P. J. Dwyer's Melissa, 12 to 1, was half a dozen lengths back, beating Frederick Johnson's Hammerless, 8 to 1, a head. The time was 1:00 1-5.

Jack McGinnis's Troublesome, 30 to 1, a maiden, made nearly all the running in the was 1:00 1-5.

Jack McGinnis's Troublesome, 30 to 1, a maiden, made nearly all the running in the fifth race, at a mile and a quarter, and staggered home a winner by half a length in 2:06. Missouri Lad, 5 to 1, always prominent, was weakly ridden in the last sixteenth and had to be contented with the place, which he took from Lord Stanhope, 4 to 1, by three lengths. The latter stood a drive and managed to finish a head before Beauclere, 15 to 1, whommade up a lot of ground. Good Luck, 3 to 5 favorite, had no speed at any stage and pulled up lame.

H. R. Brandt's Fitz Herbert, 3 to 5 favorite, after letting Uncle Jim, 7 to 2, and Voodoo, 7 to 2, show the way to the turn in the last race, for three-year-olds, five furlongs, ran over them and gailoped home an easy winner by two lengths in 1:00 3-5. Uncle Jim beat Voodoo eight lengths for the place. Four favorites were successful, and McDaniel led the jockeys with two winners and a second. The weather was perfect, though a gale blew down the homestretch. About 15,000 persons were in attendance. The summaries:

POWER BOATS START TO-DAY Two Will Race From Here to Bermuds for Valuable Prizes.

The second division of the Bermuda racing fleet will start this afternoon from Gravesend Bay. These will be the power boats and they will compete for the Gordon Bennett cup and for $1,000 cash to the winner. There are only two, the Ailsa-Craig and the Irene 11. but the time allowance, figured according to the scale and measurement system of the American Power Boat Association, will but them on practically even terms and each boat has a good chance to win.

The Alisa-Craig won the race last year. She made the course in 84 hours 21 minutes, averaging 10.18 nautical miles an hour. The frene, a much smaller boat, can make about 8 nautical miles an hour, so that if she keeps that speed up she will reach the finish in about 81 hours. She gets an allowance of 18 hours, which shows that the Alisa-Craig will have to do all she did last year to win the prize again. Those who are going on the frene 11, think that they can squeeze a little more than 8 knots out of the yacht and that they can win.

The two boats were at Bayonne yesterday taking their stores on board and receiving the linishing touches to their engines. The Alisa-Craigwas hauled out and another wheel was put on. The Ailsa-Craig won the race last year. She he Ailsa Craig was built from designs by A. Cary Smith. She is 30 feet 8½ inches over all, 50 feet on the water line and 10 feet beam. She is driven by a four cylinder Craig engine, with cylinders 9 by 10 and developing 65.4 horse-power. The Irene II, was built from designs by K. H. Schock and is 40 feet over all, 33 feet on the water line and 10 feet beam and has a three cylinder Standard motor, with cylinders 5 by 8 and developing 18 horse-power. She carries 400 gallons of gasolene and stores for a month.

On board the Ailsa Craig will be Rear Commodore James (raig of the New Rochelle Yacht Club, the owner; John Fish Welch of the steamer Bermudian, captain and navigator; J. S. F. Kerr, who will act as mate; Engineer John Connal, Assistant Engineer James Connal, Harry King, deck hand; theodore E. Ferris and E. H. Chapin.

On board the Irene II, will be S. W. Granbery, the owner; Thomas Fleming Pa; who will navigate the yacht water S. Bieling, F. B. Thurber, John Sillen, engineer, and Walter Ennis.

The start will be made at 4 o'clock this afternoon from Gravesud Ray.

AMERICAN LEAGUE. New Yorks, Defeated by Clevelands Again,

Head the Second Division. Going down! The New York Americans, a few days ago at the top of the heap, now head the second division. They haven't even a clear title to that berth, for they are tied with the White Sox. The latter beat the Washingtons yesterday and the New Yorks lost again in Cleveland, their fifth straight defeat. The Detroits took a hard fought game from the Bostons.  CLEVELAND, 6: NEW YORK (A. L.), 4. CLEVELAND, June 5 .- The New York Amer icans dropped another game to Cleveland to-day, 6 to 4, after Glade and Rhoades had been pounded out of the box.

Lake was hit almost as freely as was Glade, while Liebhardt, who succeeded Rhoades, pitched masterly ball with men on bases, holding Griffith's men to one run in the sixth when a double, two singles, a stolen base and a pass were combined. He passed Niles purposely after fanning Kleinow and Lake, then fanned Hemphill.
Elberfeld made his reappearance in the game and played fancy ball. Conroy was the weak point, however. The scorer gave hits on five drives around Conroy, on three of which he could have caught his man had he played taster after knocking down the ball played faster after knocking down the ball. Niles and Chase played particularly fast ball. Kleinow caught an excellent game, nailing four would-be base stealers with ease. Glade lasted one 'mning, passing Josh Clark ahead of Bradley's triple and Stovail's single, which netted Cleveland a run.

Rhoades lasted part of the second inning. Hemphill, Keeler and Chase singling in the first for one run, Stahl and Ball singling, Kleinow being hit and Niles tripling in the second for two runs. The third New York score came in the sixth on Eiberfeld's single Stahl's double and Conroy's single. Conroy, stole as Liebhardt started his fanning stunt. Griffith was benched by O'Loughlin for kleking on Liebhardt's pitching position.

The other Cleveland runs were gained in the second, when Lake was hit for doubles in succession by Nig Clark and Hinchman Birmingham singled and Lake threw wild on Liebhardt's sacrifice, three runs resulting. Hickman and Birmingham singled, Josh Clarke walked and Bradley singled in the fourth for the other two runs.

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR GRAVESEND. Carlton, Great American and Empire State Steeplechase Features.

An excellent card is offered by the Brooklyn Jockey Club for Gravesend this afternoon. The Carlton Stakes, for three-year-olds, at mile, is one feature with Royal Tourist Transvaal and Robert Cooper perhaps the hest. The Great American Stakes, for twovear-olds, five furiongs, is another attraction year-olds, five furlongs, is another attraction with the Madden entry (Sir Martin and Fayette) finding favor over Selectman, Torbellino and others.

For the Empire State Steeplechase, at about two and a half miles, the Colt entry (Thistledale and Kara) will be played to beat John M. P. and California king. In the first event, at about six furlongs, James B. Brady, Besom and Simple Honours may go well. In the fifth race, at a mile and a sixteenth, Rockstone, Hyperion II, and Okenite look formidable. Maiden two-year-olds will run in the last race, at five and a half furlongs, with Yankee Daughter, the Belmont entry (Rostrum and Madman) and Lawton Wiggins having good chances. The entries follow:

LUCK AND BINGLES MISSING

ALSO GINGER, AND THE NEW YORKS LOSE AGAIN.

Cardinals Inject Occasional Timely Hits Into the Fray-Brooklyns Spurn a Chance and Lose to the Reds-Quakers Down Pittsburgs-Cubs Do Up Bostons. Our gailant New York confraternity of baseball players got it in the neck three ways again yesterday. Up at the Polo Grounds there was defeat, over at Washington there was defeat, out in Claveland there was defeat. The St. Louis team beat the New York Nationals again, and the Reds repeated in Brooklyn. As the Phillies drubbed the Pitta-burgs the Reds have second place all to themselves. The Chicagos won in Boston. Four was a winning number for each of the victorious teams. The results: St. Louis, 4; New York, 2.

ST. LOUIS (N. L.), 4; NEW YORK (N. L.), 2. An asset for the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday was their trick of getting hits when men were on bases, something which was con-spicuously missing from New York's playing. While New Yorkers were dying on bases be-cause of the prominent weakness of the home team in making timely hits the Cardinals were seoring, and the latter put the drooping Poloists to the mat again. There is no question whatever that the St. Louisans had luck, whatever that the St. Iouisans had luck, for two of their runs hinged on hits that were hits because the ball took a bad bound when going direct at a fielder; but the visitors played with more vim and snap and confidence than the New Yorks. The home team's game was flaccid, toneless, mechanical.

The New Yorks went through the motions, but played their parts without feeling or expression. The only time their emotions seemed to be stirred was when Umpire Rudderham made a laughably bad decision and called a St. Louis runner safe at first despite the fact that Tenney touched the man with the ball before he reached the bag. Tenney picked up a low throw from Devlin and tagged O'Rourke. Rudderham apparently did not see Tenney touch the runner. Mike Donlin stormed until ordered off the grounds. As the occurrence was a ninth inning one Mike's absence did not make any difference. The man who was called safe did not score, and the decision had no effect on the result, only on tempers.

man who was called safe did not score, and the decision had no effect on the result, only on tempers.

The two pitchers, Wiltse and Karger, did the most timely hitting of any of the players. Karger got in a whack that shipped two runs to the plate—a hard hit ball which took an eccentric bound and jumped over Bridwell's shoulder. That unexpected change of direction in the ball's course made a vital difference in the result of the game. Clouts from Wiltse's bat drove in both of New York's runs. Wherein Karger excelled Wiltse was in keeping the hits scattered and in having a bigger graveyard rabbit's foot in his pocket.

Wiltse passed Byrne in the first inning and Murray welted a liner to left which was played clumsily by Shannon. The ball speed past Spike and Byrne scored. Needham made a nice play in the second, when with men on first and second and one out he whipped the ball down to second and caught O'Rourke a long way off the bag. In the third inning Bridwell led off with a double and in the fourth Doalin led off with a double and in the fourth Doalin led off with a double and in the fourth Doalin led off with a double and in the fourth Doalin was forced by Seymour, who died stealing. Stealing, incidentally, was a lost art. In every instance but one Needham and Hostetter turned back base runners easily.

Wiltse, first up in the second half of the sixth, was safe on an error, but then came a foul fly, a strike out, a hit by Donlin and a force. The Cardinals scored in the sixth with two out. Murray doubled, getting to second by good running, and was escorted home by Delehanty's prod over Devlin. Needham dropped a T. L. tap in centre in the seventh, and after Devlin and Doyle had been disposed of on harmless flies Bridwell drew four balls. Wiltse came to the rescue with a hit and brought Needham in. Shannon, with two out. Murray doubled, getting to second by Doyle and Karger's smash shied away from Bridwell, as duly and dejectedly chroniced. Konetchy and Hostetter scored on it. With two out in the ninth. Doyle s on tempers.

CINCINNATI, 4: BROOKLYN, 1.

The Brooklyns had a chance to make a batch of runs in the third inning of yesterday's game with the Cincinnatis, but only one run was gleaned from the rosy opportunity. Opportunity, thus flouted, knocked but once at the Brooklyns door, and the Reds won the game. The Brooklyns peopled the bases so fast in the third that it looked like a swarm of tallies. Wilhelm, Hummel and Sheehan singled, with nobody out, and Wilhelm scored. Lumley walked and filled the bases, and still nobody was out. Jordan hit to Ganzel, who threw Hummel out at the plate; Lewis, alas! struck out and Pattee, alas a second time, filed out.

The Reds made a run in the fifth. Ganzel got around on a fumble, a sacrifice and Hulewitt's single. Huggins got around in the sixth on a base on balls, a sacrifice and Lobert's single. In the ninth Bob Ewing made sure of his own game. Schlei's single and a base on balls to Hulswitt put two on bases, and Ewing brought them in with a two bagger. The Title Holder, Travers, on His Best Game Equals the Course Record at Englewood in Morning Round-Behr Beats Barnes in Semi-Final Round.

"On with the golf balls," was the slogan at the Englewood Golf Club yesterday, for the liberal conditions of the New Jersey State association tournament permitted sixty-four players to keep on at the match game. The championship was the feature and marked the return of J. D. Travers, the titleholder to his best game. In the morning he beat Pell by 8 up and 7 to play and equalled the amateur record for the course with this card:

In the same round Giffen had the worst of the early holes with Olyphant and stood down with 4 to go. But the Baltusrol man took all the series and saved the match, coming home in 37. Barnes was out in 39 to Kirkby's 40 and won by 2 and 1, while Behr beat Barrows, after being square at the eighth, by 4 and 2.

As to the semi-final Behr and Barnes were 43 to the turn, the former winning by 5 and 4. Giffen played well with Travers but could not win a hole going out. Travers was out in 39 and 3 up, winning by 4 and 3. Travers and Behr were also in the final last year. The summary:

Seen Off Nantucket Lightship Early on Thursday Morning.

The sailing yachts heading for Bermuda are making good progress and if they keep up the speed they showed in the first nineteen Sunday. The tank steamer Rotterdam, which arrived here yesterday, reported that three of the racers were sighted forty miles east of Nantucket lightship at 6 o'clock on Thursday morning. The captain says he saw one white and two black yachts, but he is probably mistaken in the color as the Dervish was the only black yacht that started The three he saw were in all probability the Dervish, Esperanza and Zurah. One white yacht was five miles ahead of the others but was to leeward of the course. That was about the position the yachts would be in if they kept relatively the same positions as when they started. The Esperanza was allowed to foot last and drew ahead, but she was to leeward of the Dervish and Zurah. The position where they were seen was about 140 miles in a direct line from Marbiehead Rock, so that they had averaged about seven miles an hour. From that point the course is almost south to the finishing line and with the winds prevailing as they did yesterday they would lay their course. There were stime 535 miles to be sailed, but keeping up the speed shown so far they should reach the mark off St. David's Head before noon on Sunday.

Yale Fours in a Race.

NEW LONDON, June 5 .- On Monday morning the Harvard shells will arrive at Red Top and the oarsmen will come later in the day. and the oarsmen will come later in the day. Livingston, the stroke in the Yale freshman boat, who was only yesterday elected captain, has been relegated temporarily to the four oar and Frost has displaced him. Cool weather prevails at the training quarters and the southwest wind kicks up such a choppy sea that no shells dare go below the first mile post. Yale's varsity fours had a three-quarter mile race this afternoon downstream, crew No. 1, with Wallis stroking, winning by half a boat length.

Cricket. The Prospect Park Cricket Club played the team of the New York Veterans Association at Prospect Park Parade Grounds yesterday and gained a victory by 10 runs after having declared their innings closed when but eight wickets had been taken.
